	QUALITY, FOOD SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT POLICY	Date of creation: May '16 Date of revision: May '19

Avícola Sánchez SL considers that food quality and harmlessness should be the number one priority of the strategy and fundamental values of any company. The collaboration, ambition and commitment displayed by the entire Avícola Sánchez SL team are crucial in allowing us to provide quality and safe prepared products.

As part of its commitment to quality, food safety, customer satisfaction, ethical and corporate responsibility and respect for the environment, Avícola Sánchez SL's management undertakes to:

- Comply with legal requirements in terms of food quality, hygiene and harmlessness, the environment and other applicable areas.
- Ensure that our customers are using products that are safe, harmless, reliable, legal and compliant with their requirements in such a way as to fully satisfy their needs and expectations.
- Promote participation, information, training and consultation of all members of staff, including temporary and external staff who carry out work at our facilities, as an ongoing commitment to improving working conditions. Promote the fundamentals of ethical work.
- Act preventively and actively to counter any possible environmental impacts caused by our activity and to work in a sustainable manner.
- Commit to protecting the environment and preventing pollution, as well as other specific commitments that are relevant to the nature of the organisation (sustainably using resources, mitigating and adapting to climate change, and protecting biodiversity and ecosystems).
- Commit to continuously improving the food safety and quality management system and the environmental management system (in order to improve our environmental performance).

This policy is the frame of reference for establishing and revising food quality and harmlessness objectives; therefore, management assumes full responsibility of its obligation to exercise its leadership in implementing and applying conducts that are compliant with the food quality and harmlessness system of Avícola Sánchez SL, as a promoter, leader and example in fulfilling an obligation that concerns all members of our company.
